What is FIMSA and FIMSA2018?

The Federation of Immunological Societies of Asia-Oceania (FIMSA) is a non-profit organization founded in 1992 to advance the science of immunology in the Asia-Pacific region. Current members include Australia & New Zealand, China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, India, Iran, Japan, Korea, Papua New Guinea, Singapore, Thailand, and Sri Lanka. The FIMSA Congress is an international conference organized by FIMSA members every 3 years with the aim of getting immunologists of the member countries together for updating on current research on immunology. FIMSA2018 is the 7th FIMSA Congress which will be hosted by Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Association of Thailand (AAIAT). AAIAT will host this event for the second time since 2000.
